STATEMENT OF FACTS

9. On February 23, 2024 at approximately 7 a.m., at 155-47 101st Street, Howard Beach NY, in the confines of the 106th Precinct, Plaintiff was physically assaulted by Defendant Sergeant Doe. Upon information and belief, the police were called to the location because of a disturbance involving Plaintiff and his parents. Video footage captures Sergeant Doe, on a public street, punch Plaintiff in the face with a closed fist and then electrocute him with a Taser while plaintiff is surrounded by multiple other officers. At the time of the battery Plaintiff is not in a fighting stance and has his hands at his side. It appears from the video to be an unprovoked and completely unnecessary use of potentially lethal force. Upon information and belief, the officers on the scene have body camera footage of the incident.
